To Whom It May Concern,

Re. Ryals v. HireRight Solutions

I Myra J. Tucker, being a Class Member in the Class Action suit and subsequent propose settlement of Ryals v. HireRight Solutions, hereby object to the settlement.

I do not think the settlement is fair, reasonable, and/or adequate for the losses suffered as a direct result of the gross negligence of HireRight Solutions. I was fired by my employer (Greyhound Lines Inc.) because of false information/fact finding provided to them by HireRight Solution. This negligence on their part resulted in 18 months of hardship, struggling and fighting to get my job back.

I therefor, feel that the proposed settlement is not adequate compensation for losses suffered.

Respectfully submitted,

Myra J. Tucker

APPEAL RIGHTS: If you do not agree with this determination, you may file an appeal by mail or fax to the ODJFS office provided. You may also file an appeal online at <https://unemployment.ohio.gov>. The appeal should include the determination ID number, name, claimant's social security number, and any additional facts and/or documentation to support the appeal. TO BE TIMELY, YOUR APPEAL MUST BE RECEIVED/POSTMARKED NO LATER THAN 06/02/2009 (21 calendar days after the 'Date Issued'). If the 21st day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, your deadline has already been extended to include the next scheduled work day. If you do not file your appeal within the 21-day calendar period, include a statement with the date you received the determination and your reason for filing late. If your appeal is late due to a physical or mental condition, provide certified medical evidence that your condition prevented you from filing within the 21-day period. In order for your appeal to be considered timely, it must be received/postmarked no later than 21 calendar days after the ending date of the physical or mental condition. If unemployed, claimants should continue to file weekly claims for benefits while the determination is under appeal. For additional information, call the ODJFS automated telephone system at 1-877-644-6562 and select the General Information option or visit the agency's website at <https://unemployment.ohio.gov>. This inquiry will also be searched against the Dept of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control SDN and blocked persons list. You will be notified in the event of a possible match.

The following report is obtained from a commercial database that contains information from public records of various courts and law enforcement agencies across the United States. These records are included in the report because the search criteria for matching personal identifiers such as name, date of birth, Social Security Number, etc., suggested that this record(s) matched the information you provided for the subject of the report. As such, these records might relate to the subject you inquired about, but not necessarily. You should use this report to broaden the scope of the background search of the subject to include the jurisdictions and/or the names contained in this report. Employment decisions should not be based solely upon information contained in this report. Positive ID requires fingerprint search.
